

SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

WASHINGTON CHAPTER

ABOUT SID-WASHINGTON

SID-Washington is a part of the global SID network which includes chapters and individual members in over 50 countries. SID-Washington is a “global town square” whose mission is to advance equitable development through networking, partnership building, and information sharing on critical ideas, policies, and practices that shape our global future.

SID-W has over 170 institutional members (IMs) that include non-governmental organizations, the private sector, small businesses, universities, multilateral and bilateral development institutions, government agencies, consulting firms, and more. SID-Washington also includes more than 350 individual members across various levels who bring cross-sector expertise to our programming.

INSTITUTIONAL MEMBER (IM) BENEFITS

Access to international development thought leaders and key policymakers through participation in SID-W Institutional Member events, Monthly Chapter Events, and other members-only events.

Highlight your organization’s expertise and build its capacity through involvement in one of SID-W’s many professional Workgroups.

Advertise your organization’s upcoming events in SID-W’s weekly e-newsletter, which reaches more than 15K development professionals. Social media promotion to over 32K subscribers is also available.

Free individual membership for your employees is provided, allowing key access to all SID-W benefits, livestreaming and annual event discounts on paid programming.

Recruit experienced development professionals through the SID-W Annual Career Fair, many career related networking events, and our weekly e-newsletter’s job listings.
